

Have You Made one of These 6 Common Mistakes That Could Leave Your Kids in the Care of Someone You Would Never Choose?

6 COMMON MISTAKES MOST PARENTS

(AND THEIR LAWYERS!)

MAKE WHEN NAMING GUARDIANS:

1. Named a couple to act as guardians...

when you don't really want both people and you haven't said what should happen if the couple broke up or if the partners in the couple died.

2. Only name ONE possible guardian.

What if something happens to your first choice?

3. Not considering financial resources...

when deciding who should raise your children. Your guardians do not have to be (and often should not) be financial decision-makers for your kids.

4. Only have a Will...

which means the Court will distribute your money, it's totally public, and doesn't protect your money from divorces and lawsuits.

5. Did not exclude anyone who might...

challenge your guardian decisions or who you know you'd never want to care for your kids.

6. Only make long-term arrangements.

What if you were in an accident? What would happen in those immediate hours until your permanent guardian could arrive?

If you've made one of these 6 common mistakes, not to worry; we have solutions!
